The March 2017 election included one proposition for Fire District #1.

The April 2017 election included four propositions for the Caddo Parish Commission and one proposition for Sales Tax District #1 (areas in the parish outside the limits of Shreveport and Vivian.) The polling place for Precincts 142 and 156 was changed from Oil City Community Center at 310 Savage Street in Oil City to Oil City Community Center at 103 Highway 1 in Oil City with an emergency relocation due to damage from a leaking water pipe.

The October 2017 election included a special election for State Treasurer (following the vacancy created by John Kennedy’s election to U.S. Senate in December 2016); a special election for Parish Commission member, District 12 (following the resignation of Ken Epperson in December 2016); two propositions for Fire District #5; and three Constitutional Amendments. The polling place for Precincts 142 and 156 was changed from Oil City Community Center at 103 Highway 1 in Oil City to Oil City Community Center at 310 Savage Street in Oil City. Other polling place changes included Precincts 105 and 162 from Caddo Fire District #4 to Providence Road Baptist Church; Precinct 109 from Grace Community United Methodist Church to Ellerbe Road Baptist Church; and Precincts 110 and 128 from Grace Community United Methodist Church to Norris Ferry Community Church.

The November 2017 election included run-off elections for State Treasurer and for Parish Commission member, District 12, and one proposition for Sewerage District No. 2.

Unless otherwise noted, charts show only the Caddo Parish portion of results.
